A PRETTY GOOD STORY.—A tolerably good story is told us of a couple of raftemen, based npon an eccurrence during the late big flood and storm, in which so many rafts were swamped and so many steamboats list their sky fixeling. A raft was caught in a dangerous place just as the equal came. In an instant the raft, was pitching and writhing as if suddenly dropped into Charybdis, while the waves broke over it with tremendous uproar; and, expecting instant destruction, the raftsman dropped on his knees and commenced praying with a vim equal to the emergency. Happening to open his eyes an instant, he observed his companion not engaged in prayer, but pushing a pole into the water at the side of the raft. "What that's your doin, Mike?" said he; "get down on your knees, now, for there isn't a minit between us and purgatory!" "Be aisy, Pat," said the other, as he certifued to punch the water with his pole; "be aisy, now; what's the use of praying when a feller can tetch bottom with a pole?" Mike is a pretty good specimen of a large clars of Unitsi ins who prefer to omit prayer as long as they can "tetch bottom."

SOUTHERN NEWS.

We have received Nashville papers of the 20th evember, Memphis papers of the 19.h. and Richmond papers of a late date, from which we sities of religious instruction and worship univermake the following extracts:

brother of Capt. Silas Miller, of the Galt House,

Siller started to explore the country. They had proceeded some three and e half miles through Carter county, Tenn., when they were met by a pretty heavy fire from rifles and shotguns, which was promptly returned, and the skirmish was kept in with spirit for half an hour. The Unioniste were some 190 strong, and constituted the advance of a body of 830, stationed in Elizabethlowy, the mountain stronghold of the Elizabethtowr, the mountain etronghold of the ederals. We may state, here, that these men rederals. The old constitution and laws of Kentucky are declared in force, except where inconsistent with the acts of the rebels. This we take it means they have neither constitution nor laws. Bowling Green is the new fledged Capital, and the Conrier says eightly-five counties were represented in the Convention by over two hundred members—it does not use the word "delegates." This is the first act of a great farce and all we have yet been able to hear of it. The Courier is in cestacies over the progress of the drama.

The Federal force, comprising Gen. Hunter's army at Springfield, was reported by our scente not to be over 20,000, which we deem rather too low on estimate.

Generale Price and McCullough were still at terms with each other and acling in cordial concert and harmony.

Since the skirmish elluded to hed taken plare it was reported that the enemy were on the retreat, moving parthward in the direction of St Louis. Price has distributed forty rounds of cartridges to bis army, ordering them to hold themselvos in readiness to march on notice.
